

AMERICA'S WELCOME TO LI.

STREET BEING TAKEN TO MAKE IT A

CORDIAL ONE.

A Parade of Firemen, Street Cleaners, and

Police to Be One of the Features—President

Cleveland's Part in the Ceremonies

Expected to Be a Grand Success.

The arrangements for the reception and entertainment of Li Hung Chang are practically complete, and there will be no detail left unattended to when the American liner St.

Louis arrives to-morrow with her distinguished passenger on board, Gen. Thomas H. Ruger, commanding the Department of the East, has several consultations yesterday with the other senior officers who are to have an active part in the management of the Earl's tour of the country. Gen. Ruger has thought it advisable not to announce many of the details of the plans, feeling that it will be better to let them be known as they are made public. An effort will be made to arrange the various receptions in the order and at the times of honor. In speaking of this yesterday Gen.

Ruger said that it would be absolutely impossible to announce now exactly what Li would do at any particular place, but that it was given out on Monday in nearly exact form at present, and outlines in a general way the manner in which the Earl will spend his time in this city. It does not, however, give the entire list of entertainments which will be given in Li's honor.

Admiral Bence, in command of the fleet of war vessels in the harbor, had a conference with Gen. Ruger yesterday morning.

General of Admiral Bence's aides accompanied him, and the plans for the welcoming of the Chinese Viceroy, so far as they affected the naval demonstration, were carefully considered.

Admiral Bence is said, according to the night-channels, were agreed to by Gen.

Ruger. A few minutes after Admiral Bence had left Gen. Ruger, Lieut. Phelps of the Dolphin arrived at the Army building to report to the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dolphin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

the general. The Dolphin passed in at Sandy

Hook at 10 o'clock yesterday, and the Dol-

phin arrived at the Army building to report to

WIND AND WITS THEIR CAPITAL.

How the St. James Office Building Scheme

Is Said to Have Been Floated.

The row which has occurred between the promoters of the project to put up a fifteen-story office building on the corner of Broadway and Fifth street, has got into court in a controversy over a division of profits, has brought to light as clever a scheme for floating a big enterprise on wind as this city has seen in many a day. The men who conceived this idea and who are now quarreling over the profits are H. Ingram, manager of the Okonite Chevrolet (limited), of 253 Broadway; Charles

A. Cheever, who used to be connected with the New York Belting and Packing Company; Dwight W. Bowles, son of the editor of the Springfield Republican, and a newspaper man in this city, and one John L.

Martin. As far as can be learned, these four clever men conceived the idea that it would be a good thing to put up a big office building somewhere about the neighborhood of Broadway and Twenty-sixth or Twenty-seventh street. The idea of these men had the two or three millions that such a building would cost was not to stand in the way of the scheme.

The four set to work, first to find a site, which could be secured for purchase, and finally purchased upon satisfactory conditions. Then it became necessary to find some one to whom the building money could be loaned.

An architect who would draw plans of the building, some monetary institution which would lend all that was needed, and a builder who would take a contract for the construction of the building and accept part of his pay in bonds of the project, was the first step. The plan was formed to stand as owner of the building. That was the plan, and it was upon this plan that the four set to work. The plan was to be true, for it is upon this plan that the Cheever and Bowles are suing Mr. Martin.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this plan that the four set to work. The plan was to be true, for it is upon this plan that

the four set to work. The plan was to be

true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true, for it is upon this plan that the four set to work. The plan was to be true, for it is upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

for it is upon this plan that the four set to

work. The plan was to be true, for it is

upon this plan that the four set to work.

The plan was to be true, for it is upon this

plan that the four set to work. The plan was

to be true, for it is upon this plan that the

four set to work. The plan was to be true,

BIG RED RICE ARRESTED.

ACCUSED OF ROBBERING A WOMAN

IN A CROSS-TOWN CAR.

He Has Robbed Banks, Picked Pockets, Bounced, and Swindled—Twenty of His Fifty-eight Years Spent in Jail—

Has Crossed the Continent 300 Times.

Edward Rice, a bank burglar, known to the police as "Big Red Rice," was arrested on Tuesday afternoon by Detective

Millmore of the West Twentieth street station on a charge of larceny.

Mrs. Emily Cohen of 28 Montgomery street, Jersey City, when riding across town on a Twenty-third street horse car with her mother-in-law on Tuesday afternoon, tried to signal the conductor to stop the car at Eighth avenue. She was prevented from doing so by two men who stood directly in front of her and so close to her that she was unable to rise to her feet.

"Will you kindly move and let me get up?" said Mrs. Cohen to the larger of the two men.

"No," was the laconic response.

By an effort the two women managed to get to their feet. They brushed past the two men and made their way to the rear platform of the car. Then Mrs. Cohen noticed that her mother-in-law's pocketbook, which had been hanging from her waist, was missing. It held it clean out, and the two men which held it were dangering from her belt.

Mrs. Cohen ran back in the car and, grabbing the large man, began screaming:

"Help! help! This man is a thief!"

The other passengers began to cry out and ran to the door, but the thief was not to be driven away so easily. "You've made a mistake," he said calmly; "really, you've made a very awkward mistake." "No, I haven't," cried Mrs. Cohen. "I know you. You and that other man got in our way and snatched my money from me." "I really apologize, my dear madam," said the thief, "I'm awfully sorry, but I can't be made to give up my money." It was just at this stage of the conversation that Detective Millmore came along and was summoned by the conductor, who knew him.

He recognized the large man as Big Red Rice, and arrested him. The other man had disappeared, and the stolen pocketbook, which contained about $4, apparently was with him, for it was not found on Rice.

When arraigned in the Jefferson Market

Police Court yesterday Rice gave his name as E. Crosby Rice. He declared that he was innocent, but was held for examination.

Rice is now about 58 years old, and is a large and muscular man with a pleasant face and a courtroom manner. In all his criminal career he has never been known to lose his presence of mind, and is invariably the pink of courtesy to his victims, even after they have caught him in the act of robbing them. He was born in this country, and is a native-born American. He is a clerk, and has been in the employ of a bank for many years. He is a very clever thief, and has been in the habit of robbing banks and boarding houses, and has been in the habit of robbing banks and boarding houses, and has been in the habit of robbing

banks and boarding houses, and has been in

the habit of robbing banks and boarding

houses, and has been in the habit of robbing

banks and boarding houses, and has been in

the habit of robbing banks and boarding

houses, and has been in the habit of robbing